HISTORY SETTLED

No nostalgic stories, no political debate, no religious agenda - just simple definitive truth.

Follow the trail of INFLUENCE

PANGAEA
250K+/- B.C.
Supercontinent Pangaea

- Volcanos, dinosaurs, reptiles/fish, evolution - Certain!
- Continents separate
- Mutant from sun exposure darkens skin
- Oldest human remains found outside of Africa are from Greece (~210K years old) which had human and neanderthal features and were older than a fossil found in Ethiopia (~195K years old) which was thought to be the oldest more than 150K years older than the previous fossil finds of homosapiens in Europe or one archological site (Mitsiya Cave), with Mount Carmel, Israel containing ~100K year old homosapian fossils.
- From ~12,000 B.C. to ~3,000 A.D. people along the coast of Peru used fishing nets made of cotton.
- Allspice remains from Eucalyptus found in S. America, called the Chinchorro ("harmonic people"), who were overthrown by the Inuit.

EGYPT & SLAVES
10K+ B.C.
Period: Egypt and Nubia

Silk wig, sculpting, iconography, writing, smelting, weapons, art, and sacrifice - Intensive practice slavery using or claims others.

- Alleged in Stephens aim due to richness of extreme (i.e. represent greedy slaves of Egypt who built pyramids.)
  - Study design challenged by more recent research
  - Hebrews / Jews migrate to "Promised Land"

ROME & EMPIRES
5K+ B.C.
Egypt's Prime Time

- Dozen and scripture produce obedience and conflict
- Intermarriage (doubtful) suppresses civil rights
- Rome, Persia, Greece, Egypt, India, and China refined the extraction process of human labor.
- Iron work originated in India but smelting came from Egypt before 4000 B.C.
- Metallurgy spread across Europe around 1,000 B.C.
- Rome and Persia engage in Punic Wars
- Gaius Julius Caesar is appointed Roman Empire and conquers Ancient Egypt in ~218 B.C.
- Ancient trade settlement, Palmyra, in India offered papes, silk, rice, and other goods following Alexander the Great (~300 B.C). Around this time is where Hinduism and Homosexuality came about with the Kama Sutra. The Maurya Empire, under Chandragupta Maurya, was established. Chandragupta Maurya, wrote Arthas, advocated slavery, indentured servitude, and forced labor as well as banning hunting and violent sports.

WAR, RELIGION, & WAR
100+ B.C.
Pax Romana - Roman Peace

- Astrology, philosophy, war, politics, art, + Empire at Maximum

- The original people of Hispania were likely paleo-Iberians that migrated southward from the British Isles and were overrunned by Celtic and Germanic tribes. These tribes had developed a cult around blood and were invaded by the Cults of Goats (Bhkar) which traded with Rome circa ~150 B.C. Cibis and Vandals were enemies of Christianity. Orian and Gothrold, which led to civil wars, rape and internecine rivalry, and Christianity was adopted by the Romans in 380 A.D. by referring Cults, Gothrold, Vandals, Priests, Saints, and Native Hispanians, along with Arians, Jews, and Muslims post ~500 - 600 A.D.
- The crucifiction of Jesus and his "resurrection" was part of conflicting myth makers schemes that were forced to overlap and combine. Christianity was used as a weapon as a tool to retain influence and control over the masses. This has been leveraged to present day through political, material, and social gain, segmenting people based on unfounded beliefs at the expense of oppression, poverty, and war. Jesus was a Jew, not a Christian.
  - Religion of Islam forms leading conflict between Middle-East with N. and E. African against Christian Europe.
- Paul wrote much of the New Testament, established the concept of Holy Spirit (i.e. Trinity), and introduced Holy Spirit. He was an ancient relative who followed Abraham before Moses and likely conquered and contributed to James' (brother of Jesus) and other brothers' killing to hide having ancestry.
- Saint Peter is "key" given the name the power to judge and facilitate "salvation" and "eternal damnation" granting Brazil and islands to Spain/Portugal to ensure Roman and Catholic dominance.
- Saint Maurice was a Roman general of Egypt (~287 A.D) who led / backed the black Moors (Christians) and refused to kill Christians and was executed for treason. He was "dead seven (a) shot with the spear from disabled Jesus on the cross. He was martyred and crucified (had leader of martyrs). He is associated with Saint Peter (Rhone - a.k.a "rock" per Jesus) since Peter challenged Jesus. To wash his hands of Jesus, Pilate (Roman Governor) was a non-Christian leader of "old gods". During time of Constantine, who succeeded Maximus, followed by Constantine this sort as Romans first Christian leader.
- Rome adopts Trinity at Counsel of Nice in ~325 A.D.
- Theodosius I (Roman Emperor) declared Christianity as the official state religion and banned Pagan cults in ~380 A.D. Gaul, Germany, France, Spain, N. Africa, Turkey, etc.) In 407 Roman General Gerontius rebelled against Chalcedonian West Roman Emperor Honorius and claimed Hispania, Britain, Gaul, and Germania with help of Suevi, Vandals, and Alans. Gerontius was defeated in Arles in ~411 A.D. Romans fighting against Goths in Hispania (Roman Heraclius) was settled with Bishop Maitia, which served Christian Arians and adopted / supported Catholicism in 589 with the third Council of Toledo (overseen by Reccared I, Leander, and bishop of Seville. This was part of religious conversion of Visigoths and Suevi from Arian to Catholicism.
  - 200 - 300 - Jews were excommunicated, pagans executed, and slaves protected from castration.
  - Arianism and perhaps the opposed / predecessor, Agaric, both invited Rome under Catholic judiciary to intervene which did not defeat Arianism in Spain.
  - Arianism in Spain
- Brunhilda, mother of Sigebert I and daughter of Athanagild who were Goths that invaded paleo-Hispania for Rom was executed with her son as last heirs of Roman Hispania that pitted against paleo-Hispanians pro Roman Catholicism.
  - Hermenegild (~ | 583 Hispania was the first Visigoth Catholic whom was opposed by his dad, King Liuvigild as an Arian whose ruled with his brother, Liuva
  - Liuva was died in Arian Hermenegild was beheaded by Liuvigild (Arian) in 584 (Liuva was a Visigoth King who was succeeded by Hermenegild's brother, Reccared I who converted to Catholicism due to Leanders of Seville's influence (Isidore's older brother), which facilitated Catholic and Arian conversion among Visigoths and Suebi as some Suebi supported Hermenegild against Arian Liuva. Leander was exiled to Alexandria (Hermenegild's mentor) and Liuva died, and was grandfather to Hermenegild by his mom (Liuva's first wife).
  - N. and W. Europe remain Arian with ongoing warfare
- Goths, under Alhaquil, defeat Rome (killed Consul Paul and Prefect Gallienus)
- Multiple assassinations later, Mafia retaliations lead w/ Rome for land in France in exchange for military service
- Recitar is first Portuguese Catholic convert as grip is gain influence over Catholic Church (see Visigoths of Spain, but Portuguese Catholics Prefered Canon Law instead of Roman Law)
  - Theodoric I succeeds Wallia as Arian Christian and is somewhat responsible for fall of Spain and Portugal to Catholicism. Defeats Alarmana and relocates wing of his Suevi to France, Germany, and Gaul (Alexandria Suevi) and Vandals to Spain and Portugal. He
- Theodoric the Great, son of William Pereira (W. Portugal) inherits Alhaiate. Alhaiate, ruled but was regicided by both Goths and Romans leaving of both ancestry and drinking excessively while co-ruling with his nephew, Amaiaporrita. Her cousin, Theodefred, was killed by Wittiges on last glorious day of Goths in Spain (Battle of Ticinum in 539)
  - Wittiges married Amaiaporrita's daughter, Matasuntha.
  - Wittiges and Matasuntha taken as prisoners to Constantinople by Belisarius (later of Byzantine / Catholic Empire's military under Justinian I). Wittiges dies and Matasuntha is married to Justinian's nephew, Germanus who they gave birth to their son, also Germanus. Germanus marries into Constantine's family line.
- Ezaric (Theodoric's son) killed his brother for leadership and pushed the Suevi to N. Portugal, also defeating many Vandals kings in rule of of Iberian Peninsula.

MORE RELIGION & WAR
600+ A.D.
Dark Ages - Rise of Islam and Islam

- Catholicism dominates Rome.
- Unequal Empire (Muslims) rule Saudi Arabia, N. Africa, Spain, Iran, Iraq, Israel, Turkey
- Great Wall of China blocks migrants and invasions.
- Muslims and Christians clash with much ongoing conflict among humanity and colonies.
- France + Spain influences England's royal bloodline.
- From ~701 to WWI Western Europe was Persian/Arab/Moorish rule with Middle East Muslims ruling over Jews.
- Umayyad's defeat Persia in Khiraj in totality in 636 and raiod and Abu Musim defeated them in ~7 BC to install a descendant of Muhammad as ceiv. This produced and/or contributed to the Crusades in 1096.
- Abd al-Rahman I founded Alamorave in 756 after his Umayyad Kingdom was overthrown by Abbasids in N. Africa to Spain/Portugal with Umayyad dating there from 756 - 1031 in Al-Andalus (Cordoba).
- The Suebi were Germanic Goths that migrated to N. Portugal to escape the Huns (later returning to defeat ~100 years later) and overran Gaul and Hispania as the Suebi (Germanic Goths) they were pagan or Arian, non-Catholic.
- Abd al-Rahman subjugated his Moorish territory in ~743 against Al-Mansur in SW Spain.
- Al-Mansur reigned from 754 - 775 when built up Baghdad and Abbasid Empire. He was a patron of the arts and promoted Islam while encouraging science, medicine, and translation. He enslaved and taxed Christians, breeding them as well. He held a ceasefire meeting with the Byzantine Empire in 765 and exchanged prisoners, then defeated Byzantine Empire in 767 and Byzantine Empire again defeated the Umayyads which was to Muslim advantage as there may have been a genetic link between al-Saffah and Abd al-Rahman. Al-Mansur made relations with Charlemagne (757 - 807) via Charlemagne.
- Islamic / Muslim people spread across Southern Europe, Middle East, Asia, and Iberian Peninsula to NW Africa
- Spain funded by Catholic Banks were "slave" land and resources in "new world"
- Portuguese take over islands off West Africa's coast for slave trade

"THE AMERICAS"
1400+ A.D.
Dark Ages - Rise of Islam and Islam

- Chinchorro culture lived off S. Am. vegetation and large mammals from 7,000 B.C. - 1,500 B.C.
- ~ 800 B.C. first "Journeys" to Big Mayans (likely due to migration from Africa through Russia to Northern America).
  - Spanish and Portuguese unleash diseased, maiming, on Southern America (Brazil), with Incas, Aztecs, Mayans, and Pueblos as victims.
- Columbus fails to develop settlement in Southern America. Spanish Conquistadors and French unleash diseased animals on Iroquois (Iranian) since ~1600 B.C. who were first to cultivate hemp / cannabis materials for medicine, food, as rope and recreational use. Iroquois (Iranian) Nations are Onondaga, Oneidas, and Mohawks.
  - Catholics adopt Southern American converts and kill or enslave residents.
- French Jesuits push Alabaque to stop cannibalism among Northern American tribes (which was very practiced as well as slavery).
  - Alabaque
  - French go north to present-day Canada, likely finding Norse remains from century of very travel
- Spain backtracks meetings for West Indies since the start of Spanish Inquisition in 1478 and Spain, France, Gaul, and Dutch interference, and Spaniards neutral meeting place for France, Spain, and Portugal (which includes Southern America and "Mexico") as well as the U.S. (which is not excluded).
- Brazil becomes primary meeting place for Spanish, Portuguese, and French (however Catholics have a Catholic Church in Mexico City, however Catholics have a Catholic Church in America + Spanish-controlled nations, also dominating religion in Cuba).
  - Alonso Alvarez de Pineda is first to set up "Mexicanopa Fort" in ~1519 (trapping it and Texas from Spanish control).
- Guiana is Francis's only colony in S. Am. (to the north Guiana, Suriname, and French Guiana).
- Spanish move settled Florida in ~1565, documenting Mound Builders.
- Spanish and French took advantage of Pueblo running N. Florida to FL "Smoke".
  - Mass migration to Catholic Spanish Florida from American Indian near St. Louis (spread disease across N. Am.
- Pope Sixtus V excommunicated Elizabeth I and Henry IV of France then faced Phillip II of Spain (1588) to facilitate Spanish Armada (Spanish Catholics were fighting against Catholicism and England's religion, but Dutch private negotiations with Henry's representative (Anne Philip) to turn on the Pope who evaded until his death in 1595)
- Louisiana was named and claimed by Francis in 1682 by La Salle. La Salle (a Jesuit) is assassinated by his expedition, leaving Francis's Iroquois Texas to US (Iroquois Texas is Jesuits (Jesuits Quebec).
- Brazil and all south eastern Southern America is Portugal's.
  - North and west Southern America is Spain's.
- French dominions in LA and NL (with other settlements in Canada) (FRA The French occupied Louisiana from 1699 to 1763 and 1800 to 1803 (Louisiana Purchase) to sell to LA.
- Quebec, Canada, although part of the UK's rule via the Treaty of Paris, has remained 90% French speaking with English second language, giving France global influence north and south of the United States. Quebec facilitates French influence in Canada and United States.
- Dutch East India Company established first European settlement, Cape Town, in S. Africa (1652). Dutch settle S. and East Africa.
- France facilities North and West Africa, facilitating slavery and colonization of Africa and Southern America.
- Haiti was a primary slave trade port and refueling hub for France overseeing initial slave labor sugar cane crops and tobacco from ~1697 - 1804. In 1804 Haitian revolution overthrew slavery with Spanish and Portuguese help (although most Haitians had sold part in the reputation of Haiti).

THE COLONIES
1700+
England (British) Colonies and USA

- Among other Christians seeking religious freedom, Pilgrims travel via the Mayflower (signing what became known as the "Mayflower Compact") to establish settlements with a Mesoamerican objective, see Northern Mexico and Southern America.
- England dominates French Canada in 1713, leaving many French settlers there that opposed Napoleon.
- Religious freedom ignites tension and settlers that to align as a result, fostering persecution and a lack of cooperation between colonies.
- The cotton gin leverage through cash crops and became self-sustaining through essential manufacturing capabilities (against England's orders).
- Adam Smith authors "Wealth of Nations", referenced in "The Big Short" and "Court of Adam Smith", intentionally leaving out reference to land and home ownership to gain support from the wealthy and powerful (see Smith's book). The first third of the book is dedicated to fair and ethical treatment of citizens, going straight into "and" afterwards pointing to the problem of what readers want(s) without saying, as many "authors" have used "and" to hide what they want to hide (which is what most rich / practiced through government, business, and threat) media for mostly bad agendas (think "X for Variability" - "The blanks are where she knows a story she's doing a fake").
- Revolutionary Tension was about Presbyterian and Protestants (aka Anglicans, Methodists, Baptists, and others) using Catholics on Republican ideals and the Irish in a fighting the British (likely due to known history of corruption), Irish immigrants in the U.S. would have known of the Catholics. Anti-conflict and same likely encouraged by Catholics (Catholics are "Christian" and "Christian" is pro Catholic traditions to some extent i.e. Christmas and St. Patrick's).
- Boston Tea Party in 1773 encourages Revolutionary War.

HometOwN
INVESTMENTS
HomeTownInvestments.com